

ITALIAN MOTORCYCLE SHOW

DUCATI'S ON SHOW!

The Ducati owners Club of South Australia (DOCSA) will be holding their annual Italian Motorcycle Show on March 6 at Wigley Reserve, Glenelg. The show is now in its 22nd year and has grown considerably over the years with nearly 40 classes of Ducati and other Italian Motorcycles on display from many different eras of Motorcycling. There is even a class for "Anything Italian". There will be many Motorcycles rarely seen on the streets especially limited edition models from yesteryear.

The show is free for spectators with show entries only $10.00 ($5.00 for DOCSA members); join on the day for the reduced entry fee. Membership of DOCSA is $40.00 per annum and if you join at the Bike Show you will get 15 months membership to 30th of June 2012. Adelaide's Ducati dealers and other Italian Motorcycle businesses will have trade displays and there will be food stalls.

You will be amazed at the variety of models of Italian Motorcycles on display and of course if you own something from Italy bring it along you may win a trophy, all are welcome. Entries will be received from 9.30am, Judging at 2pm and presentations at 4pm.

For more information call John on 0408853837, Mick on 0407393230 or Brett on 83591814.

See you there.
